Recommendation 002/2010

The following is a synopsis of the recommendation emitted by the CNDH. The complete version may be consulted on this institution's web page.

Mexico, D. F., 26th of January, 2010

Case: Responsibilities of Public Servants of the head of the First Local Assembly of Conciliation and Arbitration, Acapulco, Guerrero.

Authority Responsible: Constitutional Government of the State of Guerrero

The Mexican National Human Rights Commission emitted Recommendation 002/2010, about the exercising of Responsibilities by the Public Servants of the State, against the Executing President of the First Local Assembly of Conciliation and Arbitration, located in the city and port of Acapulco, Guerrero, because of having offended the human rights of the representative of Q1.

These offences consist of the administrative procrastination or delay in the jurisdictional process and the unlawful exercise of civil service, imposing on her the applicable sanction as established by law; having the duty to inform this Commission since the initiation and until the resolution is emitted by the previously mentioned procedure. This must be done regardless of the penal responsibility she may have incurred in.

The Commission for the Defense of Human Rights of the State of Guerrero, initiated the corresponding file of complaint and on the 8th of September 2008, emitted recommendation 27/2008 addressed to the general secretary of the government of the State of Guerrero.

The National Commission recommended instructing the general secretary of the government of the State of Guerrero to comply with recommendation 27/2008, emitted by the Commission for the Defense of Human Rights of the State of Guerrero, sending this National Commission proof to accredit its compliance.
